

sägefeldweg 72.03.12

An isometric architectural drawing of a building complex. The complex consists of several interconnected rectangular blocks of varying heights. One block on the left has a red-colored roof section. Dashed lines indicate the layout of the building footprint and surrounding areas.

